We are proud to have served Oman for 20 years and continue to raise standards by graduating students with the knowledge and skills to make a positive contribution to the Sultanate and beyond. Choosing a University is an important decision for you and your family. It is important to find the correct programme of study with a University that will suit your learning and social needs and support your career aspirations.

At Sohar University we offer a first class student experience along with excellent opportunities to participate in a range of extra curricula activities. We work with a number of international universities to support teaching, research and knowledge transfer as working in partnership is the key to achieving international standards in all we undertake.

We have built a world class campus to ensure learning is conducted in state of the art facilities with teaching delivered by high quality international staff.

I hope you will take time to visit us and to see if we are the right University for you.
