Practice Password Safety

Use separate passwords for different applications.

Change the password at regular intervals.

Never share your password with anyone.

Create passwords that are difficult to guess. Passwords should be a combination of at least 8-12 characters with alphabets (upper and lower case), numbers and special characters.