

Program Learning Outcomes- Language Studies-English Language & Translation

Bachelor	PLO1	Relate factual, conceptual and technical knowledge of language, linguistics, literature, and translation to academic, professional, and social contexts.
	PLO2	Analyse language use in various genres, dialects, and registers in diverse learning, professional, and community settings.
	PLO3	Carry out translation and interpreting tasks/projects, reflecting a clear grasp of theoretical principles and abstract concepts in Translation Studies and other subject areas.
	PLO4	Evaluate translation processes and products drawing on academic, professional, and ethical standards.
	PLO5	Communicate effectively in English and Arabic using different media in various spoken and/or written contexts.
	PLO6	Proficiently use basic numeracy skills and generic Information Communication Technology (ICT), terminology management and Computer-Assisted Translation (CAT) tools.
	PLO7	Perform individual and team-based tasks and/or problem-solving activities autonomously and/or with limited supervision, assuming responsibility for own work.
	PLO8	Employ knowledge, professional organizational and interpersonal skills, and ethical values necessary for successfully pursuing a career as a professional translator.
	PLO9	Apply research techniques and methods and blended learning practices to acquire, consolidate and extend general and specialized knowledge.