

Bachelor of English Language Education

Program Learning Outcomes

- PLO1 Apply acquired linguistic knowledge to the purposes of teaching.
- PLO 2 Use various language genres, dialects, and registers relevant to educational contexts.
- PLO 3 Appraise proficient classroom communication skills using different media in various spoken and/or written contexts for the purpose of improving language teaching instruction.
- PLO 4 Carry out individual and collaborative classroom/teaching practicum observation and evaluation projects.
- PLO 5 Apply professional organizational and interpersonal skills and ethical values relevant for educational professions.
- PLO 6 Perform autonomous individual and collaborative learning and problem-solving activities with a focus on simulated classroom T&L situations.
- PLO 7 Assess the link between theoretical educational knowledge, and practical teaching experience.
- PLO 8 Employ language teaching and learning theories in educational contexts.
- PLO 9 Appraise educational and T&L rhetoric, language competency and methodologies.
- PLO 10 Evaluate different approaches and practices in education fields.

